

The board of Directors of CJNDG are actively involved in the planning of programs and activities. For example, Mr. G Parker – consultant, has been a volunteer administrator of a day camp for many years. His expertise in E-commerce gives him the possibility to counsel us on the new software available and to advise us on the legislative changes that surround electronic commerce.

Mr. B. O'Connell is a businessman who has a great interest in community involvement. He has been president of the Côte St-Luc Housing Cooperative for more than 10 years, a cooperative that is family oriented. As he has lived his whole life in the Notre-Dame-de-Grâce district, his goal is to offer affordable and good quality programs. He's involved in the local schools, fundraisers and helping neighbourhood families. He is actively working to extend the Communauté Active program throughout the borough.

Miss A. Roberts is a former employee of CJNDG with more than 13 years experience working with children. She is a qualified pre-school educator and here participation in the development of programs for 0-5 year olds is a plus.

Mr. M. Held is a retired businessman who has been volunteering in the community for 47 years. He started volunteering as treasurer for the NDG Hockey league, then moved on to baseball. It was 27 years ago that the Ville de Montréal approached him to manage the Macdonald day camp, he still does to this day. As a retiree, he ensures that CJNDG is reminded of the problems that seniors face daily, such as isolation and the loss of mobility that certain seniors experience due to lack of programs.

Mr. N. Pompey a community organizer for more than 36 years, recipient of the International contributor of the year award (First Tee of America), Community Leadership award (Montreal community Cares), Outstanding member of the Dawson College Community Aware award (Dawson Legacy Club) is the Director of Animation and authorised representative of Comité Jeunesse NDG. As a member, his role is to represent the employees of CJNDG. He supervises the coordinator of the St-Raymond's community centre and supports the coordinator of the Walkley community centre. He is a resource for information for organizations needing support. He represents Comité Jeunesse NDG on several neighbourhood committees. He is also on the hiring committee for summer camp monitors. Thanks to his contacts and participation on many committees, Comité Jeunesse NDG is always up to date with the preoccupations of the young adult population (18 – 22).

Mr. E. Taylor is the newest addition to our board having been accepted by the current board of directors in 2018, his position will be confirmed at our next Annual General meeting. Mr. Taylor has retired after a successful 42 years in the business world and as a signing officer for Litron Ltd. He has been a volunteer for the Dollard des Ormeaux Hockey Association for more than 20 years. He was head of the disciplinary committee for more than 15 years and has been recognized by the Lac St-Louis hockey Association as volunteer of the year.

Mr. G. Parker, former board member is now a resource person for CJNDG for E-Commerce services.

The firm Rochon Legault, founded in 1988 is an accredited professional accounting firm who provides our audited financial statements.